

National Comparison of Salaries for Governor

State	*	Annual Salary
Pennsylvania	E	187,818
Tennessee	E	181,980
New York	E	179,000
Illinois	E	177,412
New Jersey	E	175,000
Virginia	E	175,000
California	E	173,987
Delaware	E	171,000
Washington	E	166,891
Michigan	E	159,300
Massachusetts	E	151,800
Connecticut	E	150,000
Maryland	E	150,000
Texas	E	150,000
West Virginia	E	150,000
Nevada	E	149,573
Ohio	E	148,886
Oklahoma	E	147,000
Vermont	E	145,538
Alaska	E	145,000
Wisconsin	E	144,423
Hawaii	E	143,748
North Carolina	E	141,265
Georgia	E	139,339
Kentucky	E	138,012
Missouri	E	133,821
Florida	E	130,273
Iowa	E	130,000
Louisiana	E	130,000
Rhode Island	E	129,210
Mississippi	E	122,160
New Hampshire	E	121,896
North Dakota	E	121,679
Minnesota	E	119,850
Idaho	E	119,000
Indiana	E	111,688

State	*	Annual Salary
New Mexico	E	110,000
Utah	E	109,470
Montana	E	108,167
South Carolina	E	106,078
Nebraska	E	105,000
Wyoming	E	105,000
South Dakota	E	104,002
Kansas	E	99,636
Oregon	E	98,600
Arizona	E	95,000
Colorado	E	90,000
Arkansas	E	86,890
Maine	E	70,000
Alabama	E	0

*Key: E = Elected

Alabama—Governor Bentley is not accepting a salary until the unemployment rate in Alabama drops.

Florida—Governor Rick Scott does not collect his salary.

New York—Governor Andrew Cuomo has reduced his salary by 5 percent. (not reflected)

Tennessee—Governor Haslam returns his salary to the state.

Source of Data: The Book of the States 2014